ABOUT ME

I am a Junior Web Developer with a passion for Front End development.

For the past two years, I have been programming with Javascript, but have been delving into the MERN stack for the last eight months.

Since 2015 I have been making websites for friends and colleagues as a side business (whilst working as a professional actor!)

I am overjoyed to finally be able to dedicate myself to full-time Web Development and fulfilling my goal of becoming a full-stack Web Dev.
